Sermon

Sing Us a Song
Deuteronomy 31-32

Speaker: Pastor David

I. Moses leaves his people with a song that:

1. Acknowledges who God is
2. Acknowledges what God has done
3. Acknowledges the people's rejection
4. Acknowledges the consequences
5. Acknowledges the need for the Lord

II. The purpose of Moses' song

1. God knows we need reminders
2. God knows we will need forgiveness
3. It's not the law that will win souls – only worship

III. Discussion Questions:

1. What "song" or reminder of God's faithfulness do you need to carry with you today — especially in moments of doubt, distraction, or rebellion?
2. In what ways have you experienced worship as a turning point in your spiritual journey — moments where music and the Holy Spirit brought conviction, comfort, or clarity?
3. Are you passing down the faith to the next generation — your children, younger believers, or those around you — in a way that's personal, honest, and rooted in love?
4. Where do you see yourself in your life in the pattern of: recognizing God → worship → repentance → receiving grace?

Upcoming Speaker:
July 13*, 2025*
Pastor Esther L. Moon
